International students who have received a letter of admission from CCE will only be eligible for a tuition fee refund if they present the refusal letter from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). In the event that a refund is approved, CCE will apply a 4% deduction to the student's tuition refund to cover necessary bank or service charges. The letter of admission will be emailed to accepted students. If a student requires a hardcopy of the Letter of Admission, then a $175 shipping fee will be applied in addition to the registration fee. Students are responsible for their own accommodations, insurance, transportation and other policies. All students who have registered for private or group lessons are eligible for withdrawal after attending their first lesson only. Students need to notify CCE at least 24 hours in advance in order to cancel or modify a private lesson. Using a cellphone, chatting, eating and drinking are not allowed during the class time. Students who do not show up for their first session will not be eligible for a tuition refund, as at least 10 days' cancellation notice prior to the first class is required. Please note that prolonged absence is not considered a withdrawal from the program.

Note: No MAKE-UP classes for group program. Students are responsible for their attendance.
